It's that time again, folks. A new school year is just around the corner, and aisles in every store are lined from top to bottom with composition notebooks and No. 2 pencils. What's the most important school supply we can ensure so these kids are their most successful? Vision. Here are some Back to School eyeglasses collections before the school bell rings once again.

Superflex Kids Collection 2018

An explosion of energy and cheerfulness lies at the heart of the new Superflex Kids collection. Color is the main inspiration accompanied by eye-catching details such as funky patterns, special textures, glitter elements and bold contrasts, which make for a fun fashion statement for kids of all ages. Designed with real kids in mind, all Superflex Kids models are constructed with spring hinges for extra durability, comfort and fit.

The vintage round shape of SFK-186 reflects one of 2018's biggest eyewear trends. It is modernized by a translucent acetate front and multi colored tortoise temples showcasing an eye-catching sophisticated palette.

SFK-193

SFK-193-3

Beveling along the front and the end pieces gives a layered look to the triple laminated acetate of style SFK-193, which is enriched by double metal pin dots at the end pieces and temples for a retro feel.
