Keen-edged Eyewear by Kliik

June 29, 2014 By Kara Michalko Leave a Comment

Kliik Denmark is an eyewear company known for acutely edgy designs and you can be certain that Style 512 frames will exceed that expectation. These full rimmed stainless steel eyeglasses emulate a cat-eye shape, but feature a thinner profile than you might expect so not to overwhelm petite frame wearers. The brushed temple pattern is inspired by the mixing of textures and use of fringe we saw so often in the 2014 runway shows. The always insightful Kliik brand also strays away from the monochromatic designs that other eyewear companies can't seem to part with. The Style 512 frames in Brown and Teal are a MUST in 2014.

Purple eyewear is not for the faint of heart, but it is guaranteed to complement all shades of eyes and irises.
