Just a KLIK Away : Modern Specs from Denmark

February 5, 2014 By Kara Michalko Leave a Comment

Scandinavian style is known for being modern, at times minimalist, and always fun. It should come as no surprise that the frames from Klik, an uber-cool company out of Denmark, fit that mold to a tee. Klik really takes eyewear to a whole new level by showing us printed frames like we have never seen before.

Klik Style 498 comes in a few different colors. One attention grabbing pair is featured in color Red Orange. Orange may not be the easiest color to wear but this is to wear it right! I absolutely love the contrast of the black going over the ear hook in this bold pattern.

One of the most sophisticated color combinations we see in fashion is blue and brown. There are infinite shades of these colors but I think Klik really hit the mark... or should I say the DENMARK! with their style 498 frames in Brown/Aqua. The Aqua tone on the inner part of these frames is effortlessly cool, as well.

Kliik 498 in Brown/ Aqua

There is something so captivating about the Kliik style 498 frames in Aubergine/Tan. From a distance it may look like a nicely shaped pair of rimless eyeglasses, but once you come up close there is a pleasant printed surprise. Think of it as painting by Claude Monet, but in reverse. Ja?!

I love a modern twist on a retro style and these Kliik frames in Purple Lime hold my heart. This shade of green and this pattern just scream 1970's to me! I could see Marsha Brady wearing these in 2014 while taking selfies on her iPhone in Copenhagen's Tivoli Gardens. #MarshaMarshaMarsha
